Edward Handrihan Accused of Endorsing Check With William Brazzill's Name is Arrested-Has Been Gone From City Since June-Spotted by Policeman Michael Carroll Soon After He Returns Here.

Edward Handrihan of North Chiff trai National bank of Middletown, but street, for whom the police have been looking since about the first of June, learned that Mr. Brazzili had not rereturned to this city Tuesday morning and within a few hours was in the lockup, where he is held on a charge of forgery. The complaint against him is based on a check for $44 which he had cashed on the night of Saturday, May 21st which was made out to the May 31st, which was made out to the order of William Brazzill and was endorsed in that name, but not by Mr. in Hartford with Handrihan's name

Brazzill. Policeman Michael Carroll was sitting in police headquarters Tuesday afternoon about 2 o'clock when he happened to look out of the window and saw a man whom he at once recog-nized as Handrihan coming along by the Otis library. "That's Ed Handri-han," he said to Chief Linton, and started out after the man, who had gone up Church street, catching up to him and bringing him back to police headougaters.
